

Daniel G. Johnson

Principal, Private Clients Group
Cummings & Lockwood LLC
Six Landmark Square
Stamford, CT 06901

203.351.4317
djohnson@cl-law.com

Daniel G. Johnson is a Principal in the Private Clients Group of Cummings & Lockwood LLC, which he joined in 1997. He practices in the firm's Stamford office, primarily in the areas of estate planning, family business succession planning, estate administration and trust administration. He is an author of Settlement of Estates in Connecticut 3d and the Connecticut Probate Deskbook. He is admitted to practice in Connecticut, New York and Massachusetts and is a member of the Bar Associations for all three states and the Estates and Probate Section of the Connecticut Bar Association. Dan is the partner-in-charge of the Stamford Office and frequently lectures on estate and tax planning topics to both lawyer and non-lawyer audiences. In 2010, Dan was a winner of the “40 Under 40” award from the Fairfield County Business Journal as one of 40 business executives who have demonstrated extraordinary leadership qualities, an ongoing commitment to personal and professional development and outstanding professional accomplishments that have made an impact on business in and the professional image of Fairfield County. Dan has been named as a “Super Lawyer” since 2012.

Dan received his B.A. from Georgetown University, cum laude, and his J.D. from University of Virginia Law School. He is also currently a member of the Board for both the Pequot Library and the Stamford Symphony. In the past, Dan served on the Junior Committee for the Little Sisters of the Assumption in East Harlem from 2003-2005, and was the Treasurer at Friends of Materials for the Arts, which is the largest supplier of art supplies for public schools in New York City.

Dan and his wife live in Fairfield with their three sons.